INCIDENTS OF THE ARMY.—After Major Ringgold had received his mortal wound, his noble steed was lying a short distance from him, writhing in agony, Capt. Graham requested permission to have the animal shot in order to put an end to his sufferings. But the Major would not listen to the proposition, requesting that the kindest attention should be paid him and to suffer him to live as long as he could.

During the bombardment of Fort Brown there was a woman in the Fort, the wife of one of the privates, who regularly and attentively, the whole time, plied the men at the guns with coffee and other refreshments, while they plied the Mexicans with shot. She gave Uncle Sam's boys gunpowder (tea) while they helped the Mexicans to some grape. Where the shot flew the thickest there was she; and she frequently lit a soldier's cigar from an exploded shell. She is a large, athletic woman, having a frame well proportioned to her big, generous heart. She is now the favorite of the whole army, and being a native of Indiana the soubriquet every where attaches to her of the "GREAT WESTERN." At the dinner given to the delegation from the State Legislature, the Great Western was toasted with all the honors, although exposure to the sun has made her already brown.—New Orleans Delta.

ELECTRIC TELEGRAPH LINES.—We have been favored with a semi-official telegraphic dispatch from a correspondent, which we publish this morning, announcing the progress of the following lines:—

New York to Boston		265 miles,
New York to Washington		250 "
Albany to Rochester		250 "
Oswego to Syracuse		38 "
Lockport to Buffalo		26 "
Boston to Lowell		25 "
Philadelphia to Harrisburgh		177 "
Total in operation,		961
Ithica to Auburn	4th July	45
Rochester to Buffalo	6th July	100
Troy to Saratoga	10th July	33
New York to Albany	15th July	173
Boston to Portland	25th Aug.	100
Total in operation by 25th August		1412

The Great Southern line to New Orleans will probably be in operation by the middle of October, and we hope the Great Western lines as far as Detroit, Chicago, Louisville and Cincinnati will be completed before the end of the year. Then there will be only one link wanting, to unite all the principal cities of this vast Union in one community, holding constant and instantaneous communication with each other. That link will soon be completed, or we mistake the enterprising character of the people of St. Louis, Memphis, Natchez, New Orleans, &c.—Sun.

LATE FROM YUCATAN. — The barque Tarquin, Capt. Harding, arrived at New Orleans from Yucatan, having sailed from Laguna on the 19th ult. On the 16th ult. the U. S. brig Somers, Com'r Ingraham received despatches from the Yucatan Congress, proclaiming their neautrality in the pending war, and offering their services to furnish the Somers with whatever the vessel might require. The Somers immediately took on board some supplies, and sailed the same night to join the squadron off Very Cruz.

GREAT EXPERIMENT.—An Albany gentleman is building a boat at Wilmington, Del., which he thinks will accomplish 25 miles an hour. The steamer is to be of immense length compared with her beam and will have a great power applied to her propeller wheels. Her projector confidently contemplates that she will make the passage between New York and Albany in five hours, with McConnell's propellers.

There has been a very destructive fire in St. Johns, N. B. But one mercantile house remains. Six thousand people are said to be houseless.

In this village, on the 5th inst., by Rev. Eli Ballou, Mr. Seth P. Silloway, of Berlin to Miss Lois P. Alexander, of Moretown.

In Williston, June 25th, by Rev. T. Browning, Mr. Corey Thomson, of Jericho and Miss Roxana Fay of Williston.

Died.

In Lyndon, on the 25th ult., of consumption, Mrs. Olive A. Bancroft, wife of Wm. Bancroft, formerly of Plainfield, aged 30 years.

In the death of this sister, a doating companion has been bereft of one great source of earthly joy. No effort has been wanting on his part to restore to health, or make comfortable during a protracted sickness, which could be put forth in behalf of the partner of his joys and sorrows. She was watched over in the last stages of her sickness by a mother's kindness, whose prayer, no doubt, often ascended to the throne of grace for the recovery of her daughter. She has now buried a husband and three daughters who have fallen by that fatal disease, consumption. The husband and the first daughter, Harriet, were members of the Methodist Church; the two last daughters, Marilla and Olive, had never united with any church, but were believers in the final restitution of all things through Jesus Christ the Son of God and Savior of the world. They all died resigned to the will of heaven. Sister Olive and her sister Marilla, commenced attending our meetings, with the commencement of my ministry at Plainfield, not then, however, as believers, but as inquiries, desiring to know the truth as it is in Jesus. As they gradually embraced that truth they became free from tormenting doubts and slavish fears. To them, it was the ministry of reconciliation, when parting with friends, when wasting away with disease, and in the article of death. All who knew them loved them, and mourn the loss of their society. But they have gone to join the society of the blest above.

"And we feel no thoughts of sadness,
For our friends are happy now;
They have knelt in soul-felt gladness,
Where the blessed angels bow.

Yet again we hope to meet them,
When the day of life is fled,
Then, in heaven, with joy to greet them,
Where no farewell tear is shed."

The funeral services of sister Bancroft were, agreeable to her request, performed at Plainfield by the writer on the Sabbath following her death, assisted by Br. Eli Ballou from Montpelier. An immense audience were present mingling their sympathies and tears with those of the afflicted. L. H. TABOR.
